WRONG HYPOTHESIS

Paris, Aug. 20.—General Pridmore's army has reached the middle of the railway road, opening out in front of the Poles. The French army is advancing up the fork between the Warsaw-Brest-Litovsk road, their enemy's sole avenue of retreat.

Advices received here from the Polish capital quote General Weygand, in his response to the delegations, as follows: "Preparatory military operations were executed by the Polish general according to the Polish plan. My role, as well as that of the other French officers, was limited to filling certain gaps in the details of execution. It is the Polish nation that has been its saviour."

SAYS LOCAL CORRECTION FARM NEEDED

Mrs. Emily Murphy, Magistrate, Suggests Steps to Curb Juvenile Crime

In the proceedings of the Juvenile court, held before Mrs. Emily Murphy on Friday, a large number of cases were on the docket and the timing in the court a number of the delinquents were in the vicinity of the court at the time of the proceedings. Mrs. Murphy, in her remarks, stated that the juvenile court should be held in the vicinity of the court at the time of the proceedings.

At the present time the Juvenile court, held before Mrs. Emily Murphy, is held in the vicinity of the court at the time of the proceedings. Mrs. Murphy, in her remarks, stated that the juvenile court should be held in the vicinity of the court at the time of the proceedings.

On Friday afternoon, nine boys appeared to answer various charges, some with no previous record, while the nature of the offence could be no more ascertained, as boys are not allowed to give evidence.

On the docket one boy stood charged with eight thefts, some with five, and one with three. The charges committed by these children were by no means light.

Two of the boys, aged eight and nine years respectively, broke three large glass windows and stole a quantity of goods to the value of three dollars and fifty cents.

In another instance some of the boys had stolen a quantity of goods to the value of $100, while in the case of one boy, the charge was for stealing a quantity of goods to the value of $100.

One of the boys of the mature age of twelve who had previously been in the court, was charged with stealing a quantity of goods to the value of $100.

At the conclusion of the proceedings, Mrs. Murphy, in her remarks, stated that the juvenile court should be held in the vicinity of the court at the time of the proceedings.

Mrs. Murphy read a warning in which she stated that the juvenile court should be held in the vicinity of the court at the time of the proceedings.

It is a regrettable fact, Mrs. Murphy stated, that the juvenile court should be held in the vicinity of the court at the time of the proceedings.

Country, the inevitable result of forcing the rate too high would be that the producer would grow only his own consumption. He had, he said, obtained the figures of Canada's population from the census department. It was placed at 1,500,000 people, and the number of acres of land was 1,500,000. If the rate was increased, he said, it would mean a charge of $25 per annum to every man, woman and child east of Port William and $10 west of that point.

C. P. R. the Bands
The C.P.R. said Mr. Symington was the only Canadian railway which could be taken as a basis in considering the rate. It was unfair, he said, to charge the government with the shipping of travelling agents, and the C.P.R. was the only railway which could be taken as a basis in considering the rate.

The Daily Poem

VACATION THOUGHTS
Away from the city of the busy,
Away from the noise and the din,
Away from the grief and the pain,
Away from its shame and its sin—
Out where the blue sky is bending
Over the green of the distant shore,
Where nothing on earth is depending
On whether it will be or no more.

Here for a few days with never
A task I must struggle to do,
Away from the constant endeavor
And the praise and the blame of it too.

Just being myself for a minute,
With freedom to think and to plan,
The comfort of lack and of pain,
And from the least of them free.

Here with the great world about me,
With life in large parcels or small,
And the same power as fashioned
The world and the things of it all.

This kindly old sea shall outlive me,
The lake shall remain when I'm gone,
O'er and o'er, my hearting love for me,
For what is my grief founded on?

And what is the noise of the city,
With its shame and its grief and its pain,
No more than a tale that is told,
For the things which shall live on forever.

Are there such struggles as live on forever,
Not the fragments of human endeavor,
But my, my, and my, and my,
—Migra A. Guest

Biggest Crops in Alberta's History This Year Says the Minister of Agriculture

Prediction of Hon. Mr. Marshall is Based on reports Actually Received by the Department—Previous High Record Was Made in 1915—Every Reason for Confidence, Says the Minister.

"Judging by the reports which we have received, the grain harvest of 1920 is likely to prove the biggest in the history of Alberta." This was the prediction made by Hon. Mr. Marshall, minister of agriculture for the province, in an interview in Calgary yesterday. Mr. Marshall had never been so good, and that given favorable conditions from this time on, a record crop was certainly in the making. The last record in wheat was established in 1915, when approximately 67,000 bushels were harvested, in progress in many parts of the province. It will not be possible for some little time to come to make a reliable estimate of the probable harvesting return. There is every reason for confidence, however, and Mr. Marshall is delighted with the splendid prospect of today throughout the province, the greater portion of the grain growing country of Alberta.

Harvest in Full Swing

Lethbridge, Aug. 20.—August 20th saw the harvest in full swing in every section of southern Alberta, with the exception of the Cardston district where rain early in the week had delayed the crop in the ripening stages. However, Monday will see the harvest well advanced, and harvesting will be general. Crops vary greatly in southern Alberta. Some districts will average 30 bushels of wheat or better, notably the Vulcan, Canmore, Cochrane and Raymond districts. In the latter part of July and early August, cutting in the wheat was about two-thirds complete. Much of the grain was cut by hand. The average yield will be about 20 bushels.

Grain Fully Good

The average wheat yield over the whole of southern Alberta will be about 20 bushels. The grain will be uniform in color and quality, and the straw is shrunken owing to the hot weather. The grain is in excellent condition, and the straw is heavy as a rule and will probably average about 10 bushels per acre. Slight Frost at Regina

Regina, Aug. 20.—A slight frost was reported from Regina today as the grain was being harvested. The grain is in excellent condition, and the straw is heavy as a rule and will probably average about 10 bushels per acre.

Thrilling Stories Are Told By Passengers Reaching Edmonton Of Forest Fires Along C.N.R. West

Fire Sweeps Over a Large Area in the Vicinity of Blue River

TIMBER WIPED OUT

Passengers Are Transferred From One Train to Other Where Bridge Burned

Canadian National Railway officials announced Friday morning that train No. 10, en route from Edmonton to Vancouver, had been stopped at Blue River, where a fire had reached this city.

The fire, which started in the vicinity of Blue River, had spread rapidly, and the bridge over the river had been destroyed. The passengers were transferred to another train, and the fire was being fought by the local fire department.

Hayward Lumber Company Has Shown Wonderful Growth

To commence with a small retail lumber yard, having but limited local trade, and now one of the larger concerns in Western Canada, to have twenty retail lumber yards in operation, besides a sawmill on the Pacific Coast, and another in Alberta; and one of the most modern saw and door factories in Western Canada; and, in addition, all in fifteen years, is quite a record. Such, in very brief form, is the history of the Hayward Lumber Co., Ltd., one of Edmonton's expanding industries.

The company was established in 1905 by Mr. G. E. Hayward, who then opened a retail lumber yard in a small way at Vermilion, Alberta. Since then the original business has been increased, headquarters moved to Edmonton, and one by one the other branches of business have been established. The factory business has been added, and there has been an extent at Edmonton, it has become necessary to have more about complete, and user equipment, one of the largest and most modern saw and door factories in the west. This has not been accomplished without considerable sacrifice and effort. It has taken close application, persistent effort, and a will to do the just thing, by the public. Since early in the history of the company, it has been their opinion that it was not so much price that stood in the way of progress, but that satisfying the people was the main thing. In other words, that while dollars and cents were of course looked upon with favor, the greatest consideration with the public was "Quality and Service." "Quality and Service" is the slogan of the firm, and it is the reason why there has been development all along the line.

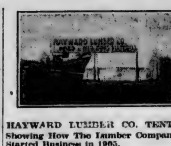

Started in a Tent
The real start was made in a tent

G. E. HAYWARD,
Founder and President of The Hayward Lumber Co., Ltd., Edmonton.

Alberta Northern Lumber company, located at Mannville, Islay and Kikuyu, were taken over. In 1915 a year's business was opened up, one each at Chipman, St. Paul, Assiniboia, Regina, and in 1916, one each at Winnipeg, Greenock, and Redwood. In the present year three yards have been opened up, one each at Waprege, Greenock, and Redwood. Each branch has a full modern and up-to-date plant, and is well equipped, and ready to carry out the slogan of the firm and oblige the public.

found that if demands were to be met, larger and more modern premises must be secured. The only time that there was any slowing-up in development was during 1917 and 1918, the years of the heavy struggle overseas, and even then the firm was not idle by any means. There was, as it were, during that time, a lack of stock, the period being utilized in gathering up "raw material." On the whole, however, resources being abundant in the meantime. On account of the enormous patronage during 1919, it was found impracticable to cope with the demands called for, and only one way was open that of building new, larger and more modern premises, and controlling purchase power through operating their own mills, so that the customer might be served more direct, and without having to pay middle-men's profits. In order to furnish the people with this service, combined with quality, the full details of the company went quietly to work on the quest of progress. They were fortunate in securing one full block, consisting of twenty-two lots, immediately adjacent to the property already held at Edmonton. The railway company were approached for the purchase of the block, and with the city authorities, which request, on account of the development promised, was readily granted. Plans of the mill have been fully engaged for some time past, and the improvements, making all available for service. When the building was completed, the existing buildings, plans were made, and the new building was started. The new building was started in May of 1920, the erection of the new building was begun, and it is in the interior fittings are well under way, with machinery being installed. Before many days the new factory will be a hive of industry.

which runs almost parallel with railway track. There is a good yard room and excellent opportunity for trucking purposes. Later on there will be other buildings erected, for storage purposes, also, to cope with the increasing demand. The company's business will naturally develop after some moving into the new quarters. The new machinery is now being installed, and as quickly as possible that to be utilized from the old buildings will be moved there. This will, of course, take a little time, as exceptional care is being taken to fit up not only for convenience, but in the very best of shape for stability, and efficient handling of output. The railway siding has been completed into the yard, water and sewerage connections have been made, and electricity installed. The president and general manager of the company, Mr. G. E. Hayward, and the secretary, Mr. W. H. Sawyer, are in charge of the Edmonton branch, being assisted by Mr. H. H. Kerr, a factory superintendent. The company also has two factory superintendents who are Mr. Anderson and Peter Fim.

Declares Prehistoric Texans Were Cannibals

That in an age long past a race of cannibals inhabited the growing part of the region now embraced in the state of Texas is shown by anthropological discoveries made recently by Dr. J. Walter Powell, head of the bureau of ethnology of the Smithsonian Institution, and J. L. Fennell, professor of anthropology at the University of Texas. These early and prehistoric inhabitants lived a nomadic life, roaming from one part of the wilderness to another and killing, with stone weapons, members of their own race for food. In discussing the results of research work made by him and Dr. Fennell, Professor Powell said:

"The life history of these people has been read from the records they left in their buried rock mounds of kitchen middens, and charred bits of limestone (bone or four feet high and sometimes as long as one hundred feet). They are made up of the kitchen refuse of these prehistoric people who had regular camps along at frequent intervals along the Edwards Plateau, near Austin, and toward New Mexico."

When these people were essential for among the refuse heaps have been found human skulls split apart in order to get at the marrow contained within. In the center of our investigations of these we have completely examined some fifteen rock mounds and in them have found thousands of speared specimens of chipped arrow and spear heads, as well as scraps of bone and other implements. Fossils of the deer which were prevalent in this region are found in profusion, indicating that this was the principal article of food."

The report of the investigation is to be published by the Smithsonian Institution. When the present investigation on the Edwards Plateau was completed, work will be started upon the "Edwards Plateau" in Texas, which are the work of a railway different race of people, according to Professor Powell. These people, he said, lived in a later period. Their pottery and polished weapons have been found in the mounds.

In 1915, what is now becoming known as the "old plant"—the premises at present occupied by the firm as a factory, was purchased from the original owners of the Northern Lumber Co., which concern was in liquidation; and in the spring of 1916 launched out for larger effort, moving the head office from Vermilion to Edmonton, at which place the company began development and extension. The property purchased from the Northern Lumber Co. was a large lot in the Eastwood subdivision, the building and adding being in place at the time. Improvements were made at a time passed along, until at last it was

CHAMPION ATHLETES AND LOVELY CANADIAN SCENES

Athletes Off to Antwerp

The Canadian Pacific Ocean Service liner Melita sailing from Montreal on Saturday, July 14th, had aboard her passengers the Canadian athletes who will represent this country in the Olympic Games, or world championship athletic events, to be held at Antwerp in Belgium this summer.

On Saturday, July 13th, the final trials to decide the men who should represent the Dominion were brought off on the grounds of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association. Competitors were brawny, and the exhibition given would warrant the prediction that it was not unlikely a few Olympic honors will be brought to Canada.

The chief performance of the day was furnished by Earl Thomson in the 110 metres hurdles. The pig fellow clipped one and three-fifths seconds off the Canadian record and was just a fifth over the Olympic record. His time for the distance was 16 1/5 seconds and Earl Y. M. C. A. Toronto, 400 and 800 metres. He also won the 1,600 metres. The previous record, 16 4/5 seconds, was established by George Barber, May 23, 1904, during the Olympic trials at Toronto.

Thomson won from a good hurdler in K. L. Carruthers. In fact an observer would be tempted to declare that Carruthers was the stylist of the pair. Thomson also performed in the jumps winning the high at 5 feet 10 inches, and the distance at 23 feet 7 1/2 inches.

The other feature event of the afternoon was the 5,000 metres run in which four competed. Walter Knox the Olympic coach very calmly predicted that Thomson, the Brandon man, would prove the winner. Indeed Knox had advised Thomson to come with his trunk ready for a sea voyage, so confident was he that the Manitoban entry would size up to Olympic form. The Brandon runner slipped along with a good rhythmic movement and had lots in reserve when he finished with a smart sprint. Altogether it was as pretty a race as old timers confessed to have witnessed on the track.

In this event the first mile was done in 4 mins. 56 secs., the second in 5 mins. 23 secs., and the third in 8 mins. 10 secs., the three miles being completed in 16 mins. 29 secs. Some of those on the Canadian team at Antwerp will be:

Alfred Thomson, Brandon, Y. M. C. A. Toronto, and Cecil Coates, Brandon.

Hector Phillips, West End, Y. M. C. A. Toronto, 400 and 800 metres. Montreal, 1,600, 5,000 and 10,000 metres.

E. J. Thomson, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, 110 and 400 metres hurdles and jumps and Pentathlon.

R. C. Freeman, unattached, 55 lbs. and hammer throw.

John McEachern, Winnipeg, 56 lb. throw and shot put.

John Cameron, Vancouver, hammer throw, Decathlon and Pentathlon.

(1) Eddie Lawrence, Montreal, the C. P. R. middle distance runner, who won the 1,900 metres race at the sports which decided the Canadian Olympic team.

(2) John McEachern, Manitoba, (on left) and Arch. Macdermid, British Columbia, who will represent Canada in some of the weight throwing events.

(4) Earl Thomson, a native of Saskatchewan, but now of Dartmouth College, United States. He stands 6 ft. 2 ins., is 26 years of age and weighs 180 pounds.

(6) K. L. Carruthers, Ontario, who ran second in the 110 metres hurdles. He stands about 6 ft. 3 ins.

(7) E. C. Freeman, Ontario (on left) and C. L. Barnes, Ontario, competing in the 3,000 metre walk. Freeman won by a narrow margin.

(8) Tommy Town, of Manitoba, who ran splendidly in the 5,000 metre race.

(9) Indians in full dress take part in the Calgary, Alberta Stampede each fall.

(10) Albertian Indians and their wigwags pitched at Calgary.

(11) Mountain goats at Banff.

Viewing the Canadian Rockies

An easy trip from Banff, Alberta, to Lake Minnewanka, nine miles distant. There is a good road which passes the various animal reserves where elk, deer, moose, elk, goat and buffalo may be seen in almost natural environment. The mining town of Banffhead is beautifully situated in a pocket of the hills, a location to be envied, but decidedly lacking a mining town. At the lake a comfortable chalet is found with good meals to be had and plenty of fishing. A small boat piles the waters and each afternoon sees cars of all kinds and descriptions arriving with their loads of sight-seers for the trip up the lake. The return trip to Banff may be made in two ways. There is an old Indian trail round the north shore of the lake, then the walker turns south, passes through a short drive, then down Carrot Creek till he reaches the main highway from Calgary and from there, there is a good highroad into Banff. This walk from the chalet to Banff comes up about 8 miles. To lessen the mileage, the motorboat may be utilized and a request be made to the captain to be allowed to detach at the above mentioned drive, then walking up the draw and down Carrot Creek to the motor-road, our pedestrian, having comfort for a car before leaving the lake) sinks down into a seat of solid comfort and is bowled over a beautiful road back to his temporary home Banff Springs Hotel.

If the one on pleasure bent is a climber by love of the same, he has an amount of work out for him in the great distance. The Mount Aspinzer at Lake Minnewanka is the highest peak (10,855 ft.). Mount Rundle with its lower wooded slopes and high, black, limestone walls just across the Spray River, comes next in height (9,850 ft.). This latter mountain extends in one long, straggling range for fifteen miles east, at which point Cascade Mountain, near the buffalo pasture, has an altitude of 9,800 ft. and has been climbed from its face but more frequently from its long and easier slopes at the north. Mount Edith (9,810 ft.), to the north of Mount Aspinzer, is seen to advantage from the Banff Dance Chayon road. To make the second the motor-road was taken to about one hundred yards west of the Vermilion Lake where the trail to its base is well marked. Mount Norquay (9,888 ft.) to the east of Mount Edith is said by climbers to be one of the best places for studying the art of climbing. Banff is a rallying point of climbers.

Many have not the strength or desire for such a strenuous vacation as walking and climbing trips. The not think you must still in Banff on that account. After one's own feet come those of the little four-footed friend of the trail—the mountain pony. He is not much to look at, he is generally uncouth and shabby; but live with him, try the trail to the top of Sulphur Mountain, give him his hand, do not attempt to offend, to the business yourself, and he will bring you back safely. His one motto is "safety first" and he has no intention of ending his days abruptly by falling over a precipice. What is more, he never does. At Banff all trails are perfectly safe and they are Government-made, wide and free of debris and any child who can sit on a pony is safe on them.

By far the most popular means of seeing Banff is by the motor-car. The Government roads in every direction are constantly being improved and each year sees more mileage added to the already long list with improved conditions of the older roads. Nothing gives a more comprehensive idea of the Bow River valley than to run down to Calgary (10 miles) and train and return to Banff in a good touring car. If there have not been long rains, the roads will be in fine shape and the run may be made in three or four and one-half hours. The incoming stranger travelling by automobile will get a fine idea of the foothill country and the amphitheatres of the mountains ahead. The prairie flowers and a pleasant welcome as you pass, the little gophers watch with such human curiosity, a coyote may be seen sneaking from the blue base and above them all the eye picks out one sharp, frozen peak—the Devil's Head (9,815 ft.)—which stares suitably down on those who dare to come within his precincts. In the far distance, the Indian reserve, that majestic head disappears behind the lower hills and does not come in view again.

Across the reserve an occasional horse is seen, the children playing about it the square at her work, the

(1) Party from Alpine Club Camp crossing an ice field in the Canadian Rockies.

(2) Square of the Stoney Indian Tribe on the Reservation, near Banff.

(3) Rocky Mountain ponies that carry the Banff tourists to the mountain peaks.

Cascade Mountain, at its base and overlooking westward, the animal enclosure where once the Indians camped in their hunting season, and far, far toward the setting sun are mountains on mountain whose numbers are almost uncountable.

Gliding down the long hill-slope, three men stretch brings the Banff Springs Hotel.

In the days to come the picture of that drive will live in memory who's little Banff is far away wrapped in her winter garments.
